I recently had Gary from Acorn Home Services replace a set of stairs at my home. The old stairs had what I thought was one rotten spot so I thought they could be repaired. Gary inspected the stairs and discovered that they were rotting in several places. He came to the house after I asked him to replace the entire set of stairs and quickly removed the old ones. The next day he was at my house with a complete new set of stairs and had them installed quickly. I have enough experience in construction to know Gary pays careful attention to details like applying treated lumber with preservative where ever new cuts are made. We now have a new set of stairs that are safe and will outlast the original ones. I would highly recommend Gary for his high quality of workmanship and fast efficient service.
